Mini-Debate Practice

Let's practice expressing our opinions!

自分の意見を英語で書けるようになりましょう！

When creating an argument, having clear evidence to support your idea is important. However, it is also important to think about the other side of the argument.

Below are four debate topics.

Let's look at both sides of the argument in each topic.

There are many ways to express your opinion in English.

The underlined sections show different ways to express your opinion.

1. Dogs are better than cats as pets.

- ☐ I agree because dogs like to play with you, but cats do not.
- ☐ I disagree because cats are cheaper to take care of than dogs.

2. City life is better than country life.

- ☐ City life is better than country life because you can go to the movie theater and many other shops.
- ☐ Country life is better than city life because the nature is beautiful.

3. Winter vacations are better than summer vacations.

- ☐ I agree. This is because winter vacation have some events, such as Christmas and New Years
- ☐ I disagree. This is because summer vacations are longer than winter vacation.

4. School lunch is better than boxed lunch.

- ☐ I think that's true because school lunch is healthier than boxed lunch.
- ☐ I don't think that's true because boxed lunch always tastes good, but school lunch sometimes does not.

Additional topics:

- ☐ E-books (electronic books) are better than paper books.
- ☐ Longer but less classes are better than shorter but more classes.
- ☐ Reading manga is better than drawing manga.
- ☐ Meat is better than vegetables.
- ☐ Sending an email is better than hand-writing a letter.

Let's practice using one of the additional topics.

Refer to the underlined sections to set up your opinion.
